Digital Mental Health

Digital mental health resources are online programs and tools, apps, and other phone and video-based platforms that deliver mental health support. They can be used alone or in combination with support from your GP or face-to-face therapy.

These resources are based on research evidence, free or low cost, and easy to access at a time that suits you, with just a phone or an internet connection. Some services even allow you to remain anonymous.

If you are unsure what type of support you need or you find that you need a bit more help, you might need a professional assessment to work out why you are feeling this way. Your GP, mental health professional or Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health worker is a great place to start.

Medicare Mental Health

WellMob

This brief guide provides a list of digital mental health resources suitable for adults. This list is not exhaustive and represents only Australian products. For other relevant resources see Medicare Mental Health.
